Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Aretino—Morna.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving. Mamie Callan was the best. She took the long route and was under restraint all the way. Floreanna was hemmed in from the half mile pole to the stretch turn. She came fast the last quarter. Song Bird and Inspector Hunt raced each other into the ground. Song Bird dislikes weight. He can run three-quarters in about 1:14. Inspector Hunt got a running start. He is fit and can win on a muddy track. Helen Wren could never get through. She was short on speed though and ran a vile race. Tom Sayre was well up the first part of it. Teeta May pulled up lame.
Scratched—Dejure, 110; Cochina, 113; Red, 107; Weola, 110; Miss Al Farrow, 104. Ashland, 110; Verdi, 113; Ursula, 110; Pitfall, 110.

Time, 24, 48^h, 1:01^h, 1:07^h.

Winner—Ch. f, by Aintree—Quick.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next four were under keen pressure. Graziella ran a startling good race. She is a good filly and always does her best. Considering her last race the price was out of line. Fonsavannah, with clear sailing, would surely have been second and might have won. Kitley was altogether too light to handle him. The colt on his own courage bumped his way through in the stretch. Ben Hadad, close to the rails, collapsed in front of Fonsavannah. Kitley hadn't judgment enough to pull out and go around and the colt was just buck-jumping in a pocket the last furlong. Depending ran an honest race. He finished with a rush. Tom Calvert was keenly cut off on the far turn, causing Connolly to pull him almost to a standstill. He too finished strong. Sacket's race was disgraceful. Billy Mason and Ben Hadad raced each other to pieces.
Scratched—Globe II, 107; Flo Honeydew, 95; Cherry Bounce II, 107; Moch, 103; The Ace, 104; Crystalline, 107; Lady Marie, 95; Felix Young, 98; Hal's Mount, 103.
Overweights—Rose Maid, 5 pounds.

Time, 24^h, 49^h, 1:01^h, 1:14^h.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Esher—Feisen.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won easily; second with something left after an early drive. Forseen ran right to her mark. She is a consistent filly and handles weight cleverly. Her impost is what made the price. Adowa ran her race. About 1:15 is her notch. The ride killed the Deuce. Evidently Nicholson was put up to make a price. His party got the price, but came near losing their boy. He did everything but fall off. Diggs finished strong. Watch Don Fulano. He should win his next. Golightly showed a flash of speed.
Scratched—Purse Proud, 107.

Time, 24^h, 50, 1:02, 1:15^h, 1:41^h.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Candlemas—Sister Geneva.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won with something left; second and third driving hard. Carnero was best handled. Connolly evaded the early pace, and saved much ground on the turns. He left the others as though they were tied below the eighth pole. Dr. Sheppard has stalled. He did not stand the closing drive in his usual game manner. Forbush should have been second by a length or more. Kitley pulled him in behind Carnero and he was jumping out that colt's heels. Sheppard carried Forbush wide on all the turns. Dunois was running with his mouth wide open up the back stretch, but when Burns called upon him, he could not respond. He is not as good as he was. Lincoln II needed this race. His performance was better than the figures show.
Scratched—Souffle, 104.

Time, 24^h, 49^h, 1:01^h, 1:14^h.
Winner—B. g, 3, by Belvidere—Legacy.
Post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won well in hand; next four driving hard. Paul Griggs was perhaps the best. He ran a remarkable race. Connolly got through a small gap with him at the head of the stretch. Woods handled Aquinas to perfection. He waited patiently and came away at the right time. Mordecai, much used and badly jostled, ran a game race. Rewarder was pocketed most of the way and almost thrown over the fence on the far turn. Redskin, interfered with early, sulked most of the way. Judge Quigley was much used at the post. Watch Sunburst. He ran a good race. Miss Hoy and Nannie Davis also showed a lot of speed.
Scratched—Itasca, 88.

Time, 25, 50^h, 1:02^h, 1:15, 1:29.
Winner—B. c, 3, by Pirate of Penzance—Lillie B.
Off first break to a good start. Won in a gallop; next three were driving hard. J H C was much the best. He was bumped into at the start and almost thrown over the fence. Burns took a desperate chance to get through with him. The colt ran a grand race. It was much better than his last performance, too. It was also far above the mark. Donation ran a good race. He was well placed and had clear sailing all through. Glenmoynne had a lot of trouble. He was shut off at least six times during the race. Simmons, Trilby and Travis killed themselves the first part of it. Black Jack was sharply cut off on the far turn. Bar interference, he would have been a contender.
Scratched—Overella, 100; La Moore, 105; Terranet, 100; Indra, 111; Lady Dixon, 100; Senator Morrill, 103; Metairie, 100; Sea Robber, 103.

Off first break. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Malvolio is a grand colt—perhaps the best in the west. He came away when asked and won as he pleased. Pontus is no slouch at a distance. His race was very impressive. The others will have to look for something easier.
